

Martyrs of Spring, the March 6, 1953

Dr. Omer Farooque

Bullets were being sprayed, folks were being murdered, but despite all this devotees would move madly forward to have bullets right in their chests. There was no fear, but a trance of having martyrdom; the foremost objective of the old ones, the youngsters and the kids alike. Heavens witnessed more than ten thousands martyrs. None of them was lusty of wealth, personality recognition and fame. The innocents were victimized neither by Hindus, Christians nor by Jews, nor were they a prey to U.S or Israeli forces, rather they were inhabitants of a sacred land. Then the Ideological Islamic State of ours was just six years old.

The innocent victims had no demands from rulers except to urge them to ensure the sacredness of the Holy Prophet (upon whom be peace and blessings) in whose name the state was created. This was right time to demand so. The invisible foreign Godfathers created such a situation with the help of Pakistani foreign minister, Zafarullah Qadiani that if they wouldn't have been restricted by Khatm-e-Nabowat Movement in 1953, majority of population would have gone apostate with their heads, Qadianis.

Soon after the creation of Pakistan, Qadianis became tools of international forces. Visionaries of Majlis-e-Ahrar-Islam, timely perceived this situation and their delegation unveiled all this to the then premier of Pakistan, Liaqat Ali Khan and presented him a facts carrying secret file about Qadiani-Israeli covert relations. Later on, the Governor General Khwaja Nazimudin was also told about all this and Zafarullah's ouster was demanded because of his conspiracies. But Nazimudin turned down this demand by saying that if Zafarullah would be sacked, the Britain will cease wheat supply to Pakistan. Nazimudin's answer shows how our rulers have been negligent of the faith on Khatma-e-Nabowat and how much the interference of external forces has been in our country. Leaders of Ahrar, find no way to counter Qadiani conspiracies, and ultimately the sacred Khatm-e-Nabowat Movement was started in 1953, to harness Qadiani conspiracies with peaceful demonstrations. Majlis-e-Ahrar urged for the establishment of All Parties Working Council
