

EDITORIAL

"Al-Adwa" has come out with a 'trilogy' in this section of it. It is always desired to focus on the Islamic teachings in present context. Therefore, this is a consequential endeavour of contributors to spotlight Islamic socio-economic notions. It however, considerably eradicates possible qualm of modern man. It is soothing to great extent. An article by late Ismail R. al Faruqi has been especially included for its significance in this regard.

"Al-Adwa" solicits scholars for further exploration of Islamic and Qur'anic horizons. It will be as if to edify general state of human society. Allah, the Almighty makes it human intellectual obligation to contemplate upon the phenomenon of existence.

"Behold! in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the alternation of Night and Day, - There are indeed signs for men of understanding, - Men who celebrate the praises of God, standing, sitting and lying down on their sides, and contemplate the (wonders of) creation in the heavens and the earth, (with the thought)." (Al-Qur'an, 3:190-191)

Nevertheless, disagreement in approach towards manifold aspects of Islam should be restricted to the Qur'anic parameters and those set by the last Prophet (SAW) as Al-Qur'an has guided:

"O ye who believe! obey God, and obey the Apostle, and those charged with authority among you. If ye differ in anything among yourselves, refer it to God and His Apostle, if ye do believe in God and the Last

